This Was LHS In '75-'76

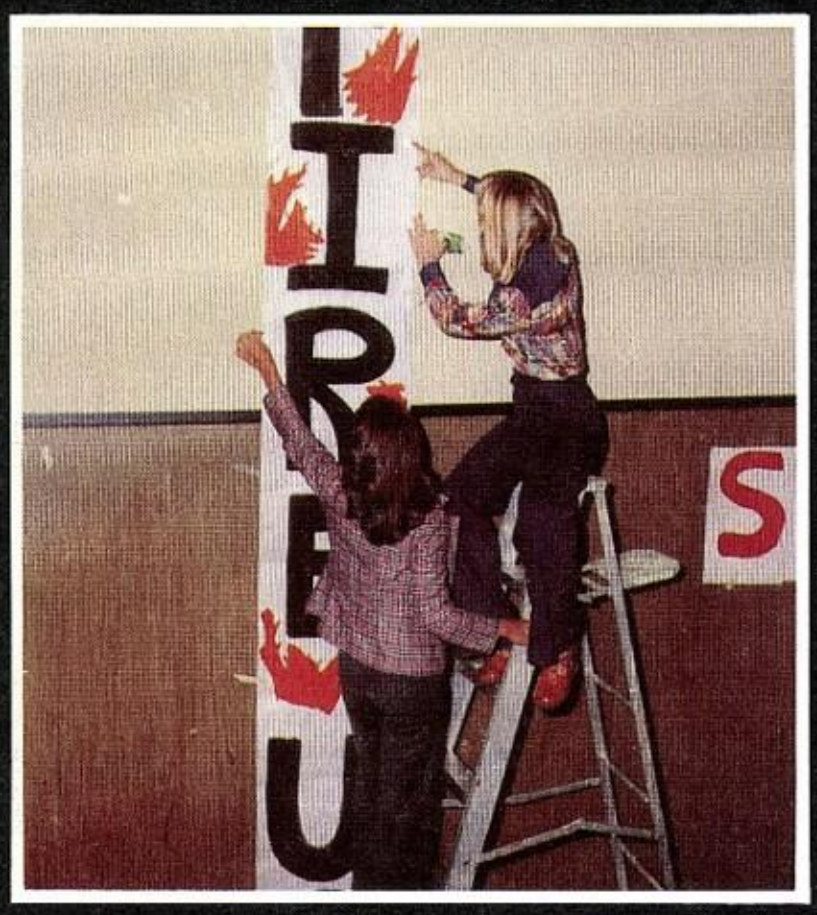
Okay freshmen, are you supposed to be in the hall?

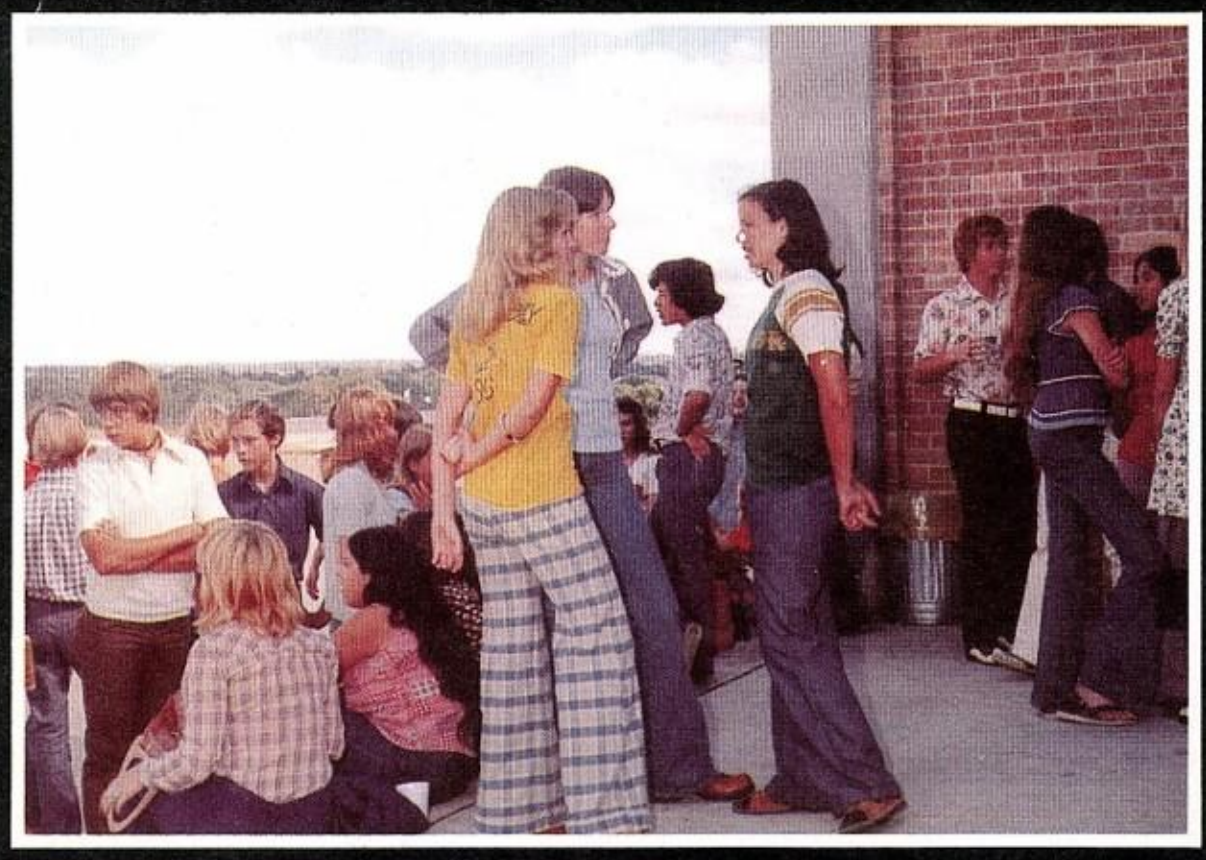
Fish "fire up" and "get high".

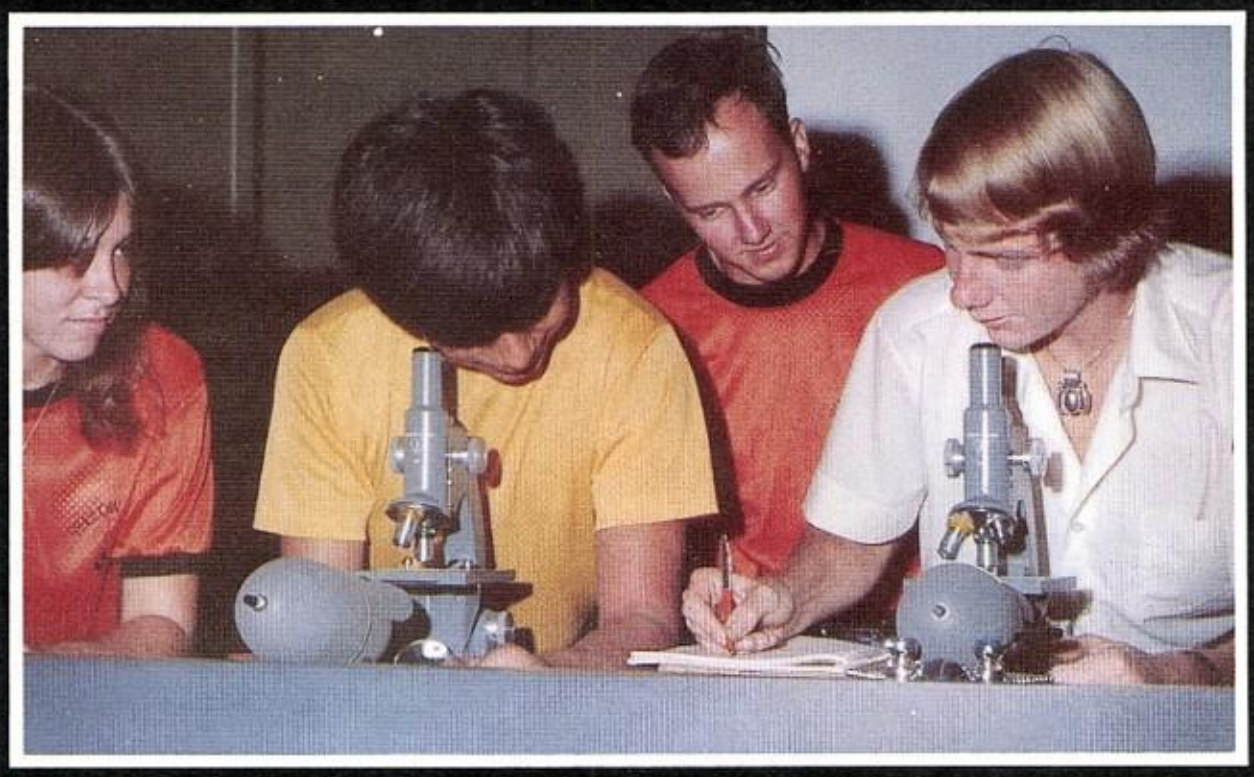
Mr. Low has a captivated audience.

Mark, we've got to stop meeting like this!

Students discuss their past weekend.







I believe the rabbit DID die.

Arlan, you're overdue.

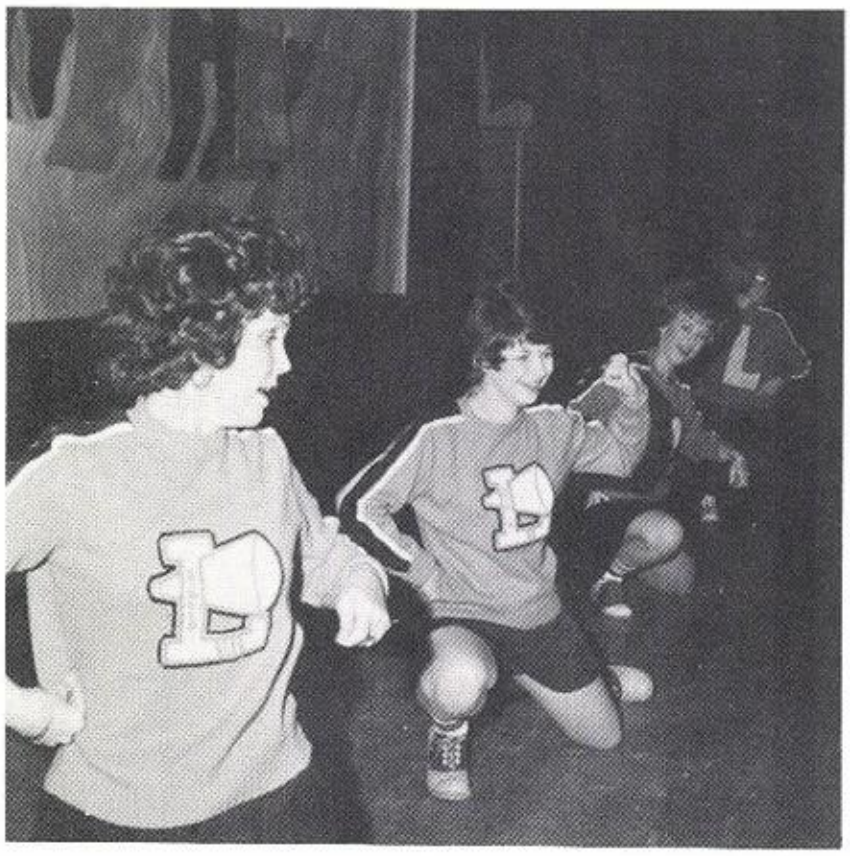
Mr. and Mrs. Banner feeding their children.

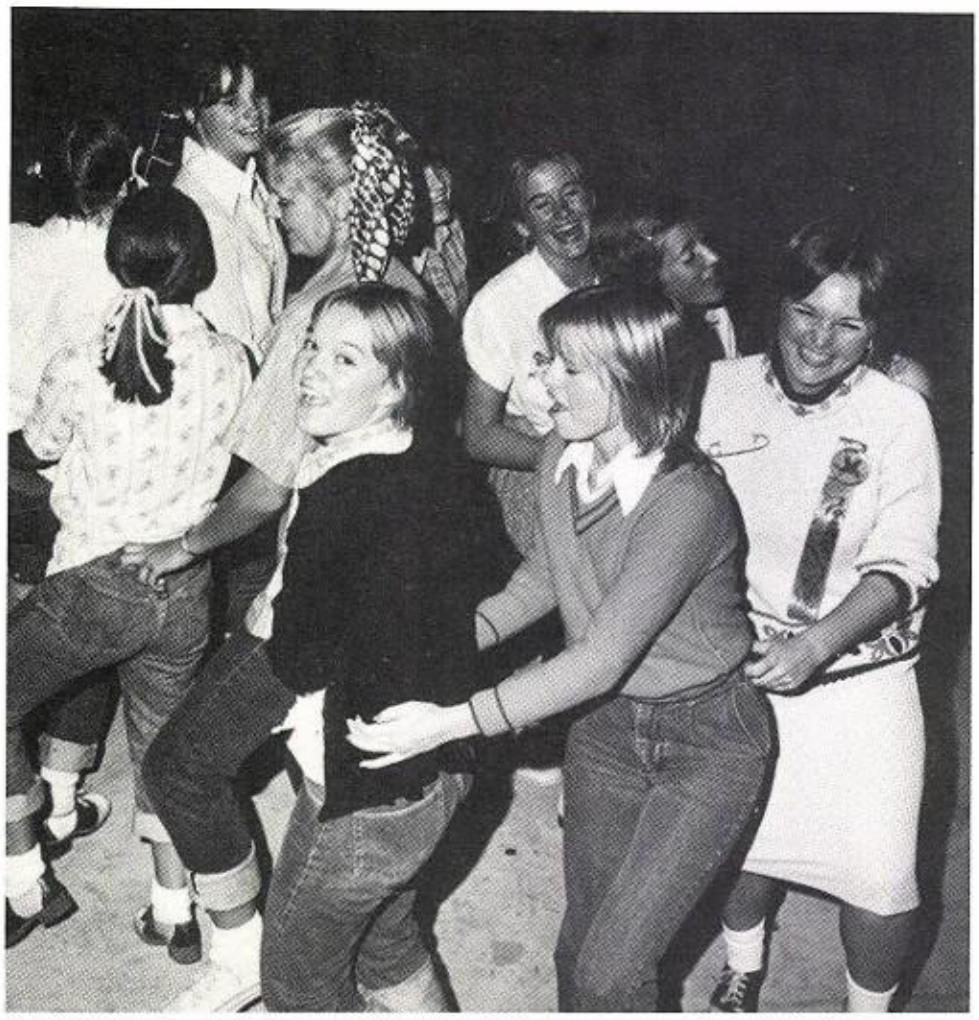
Myron STILL has his leg up.

Fourth period P.E. girls shoveling sand with the rest of the dirt.

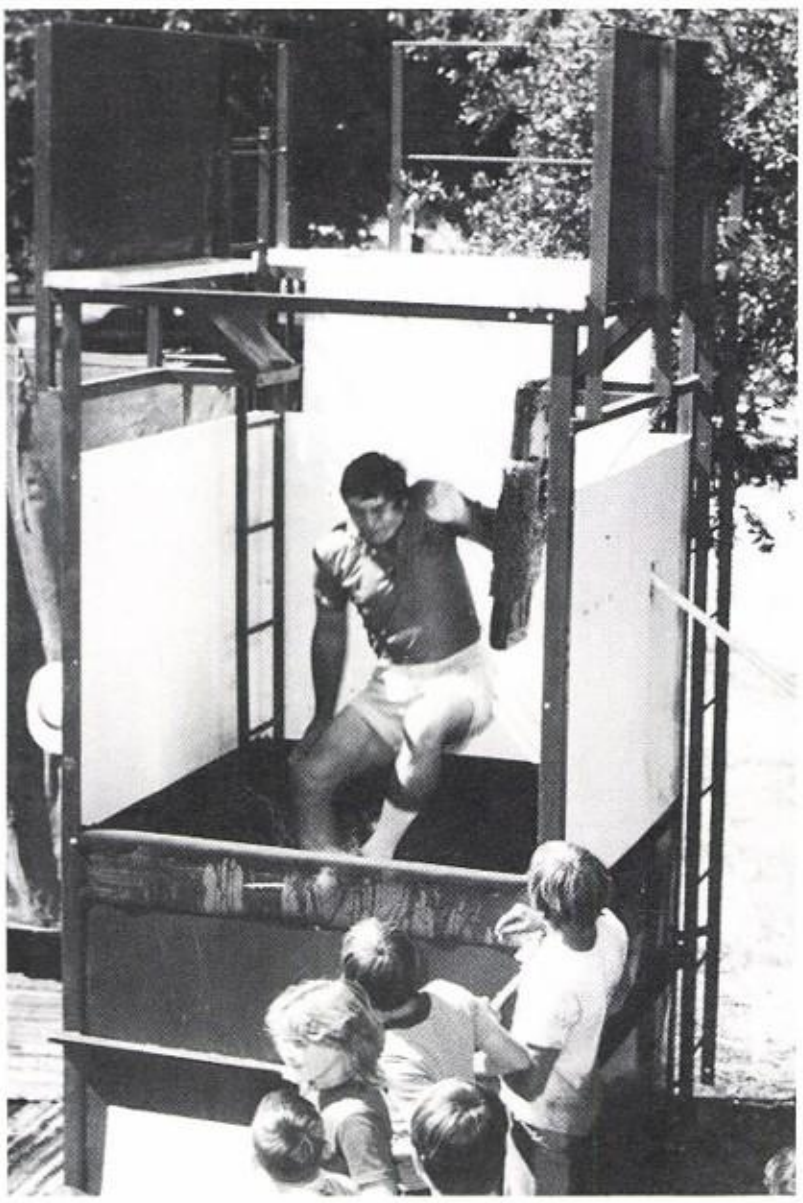
LHS In '76
. . . or '57?

One day is especially memorable to LHS students during football season. That day is "Fifties Day." To add a touch of nostalgia, Mmes. Shirley Gray, Peggy Bethell, Geneva Baskin, and Eugenia Barry were our cheerleaders at the pep rally..Twirlers were Cleo Cooper, Glenda Thiers, Sue Donop, and Sarah Franklin.





Students Seek Revenge At Fun Fest!



Coach Gray makes a BIG splash.

Sorry, Coach. Your legs aren't hairy enough.

Mrs. Barry is all wet!

Man, we never knew girls could be so tough.

Football Spirit Soars High!

During football season, we all strive to do our best in whatever activity we participate. The Yellowjacket football team was supported by both spirited student organizations and townspeople. The joy of victory created a feeling of unity between all the participants-the team, the organizations, and the fans.

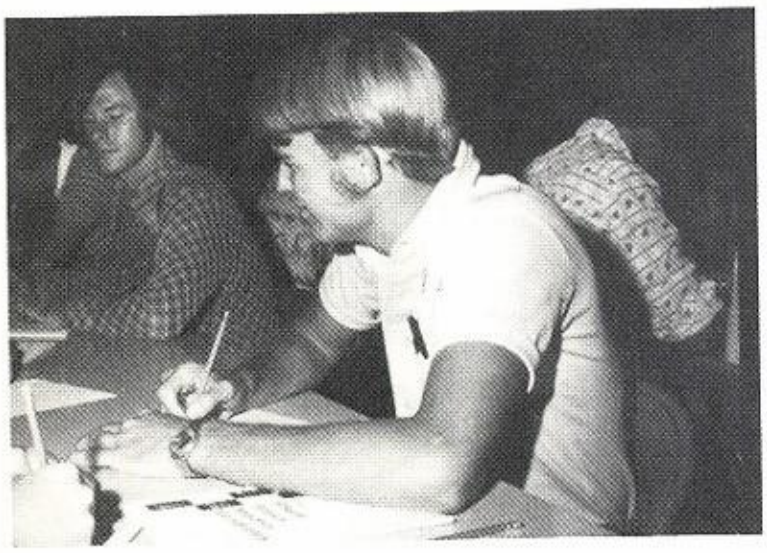
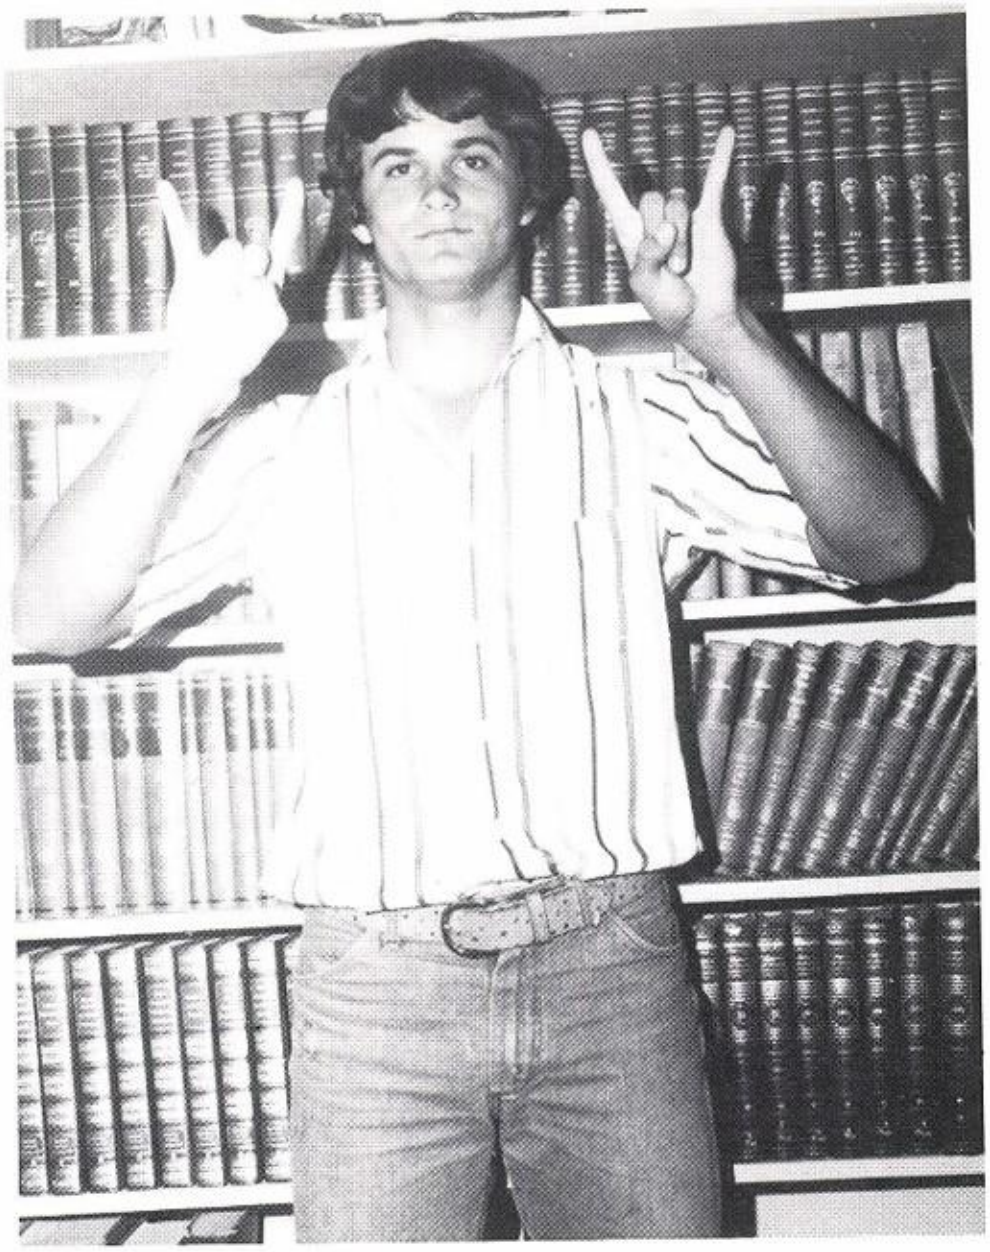
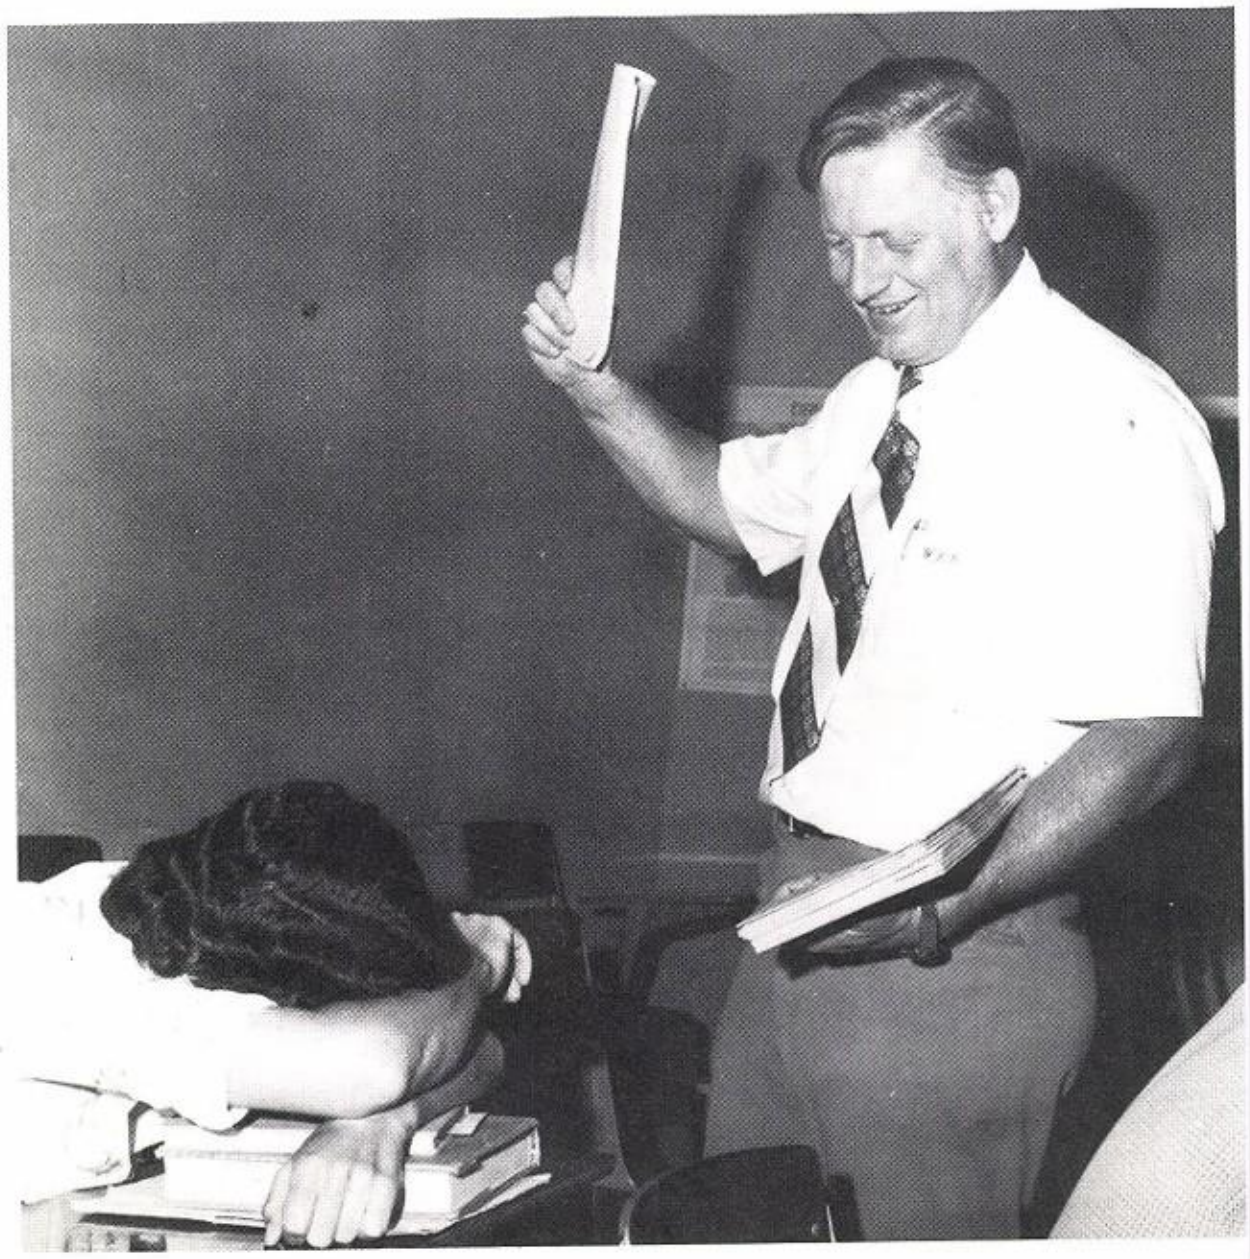
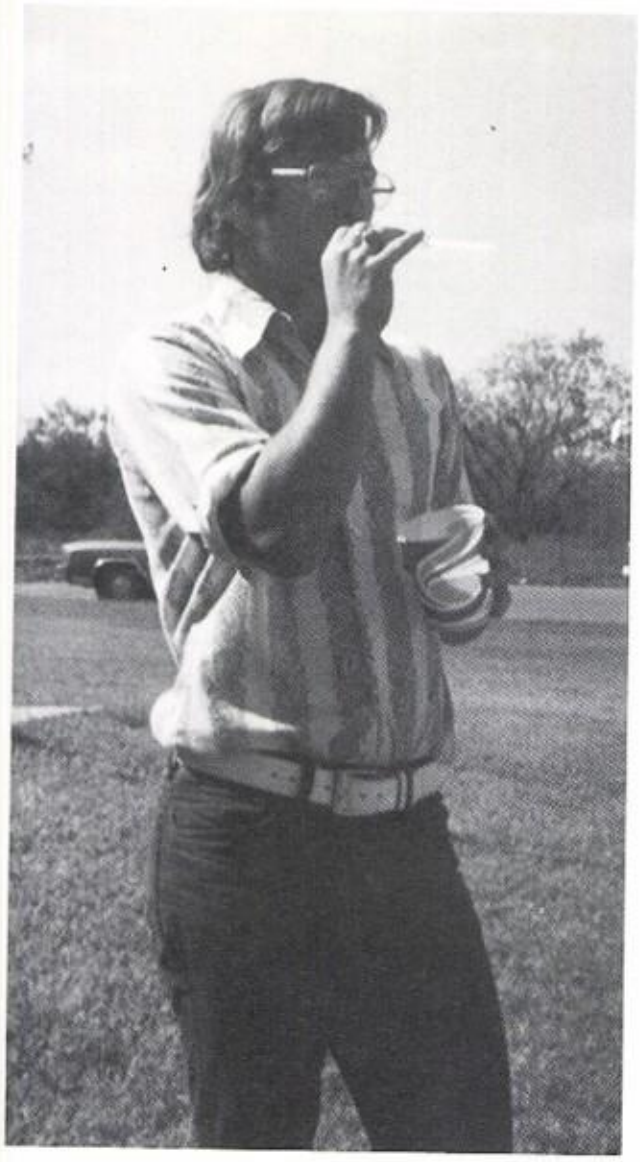
David hopes Mrs. Russell doesn't find that broken glass.

Mike and Mr. Seeliger are fixing to "rap" with the constitution.









Richard is caught at it again.

Kim, what is in that JV party punch?

Could Vicki be telling Lisa, "Don't hold your paper so high?"

Billy Joe, if you know so much about cars, how come you put oil in the battery?

These are the Senior of '76???

Pep rallies were especially spirited this year, each highlighted by a special event. At the pep rally preceding the Burnet game, all the senior footbaal players were honored with a personalized poem. A live bulldog aroused the crowd's excitement.

Robin Sindorf, the Football Sweetheart, and Rick Murchison the Pep Squad Hero were announced during this pep rally also.

Llano Shoots For Experience

Jim makes another successful pass.

Two 32's try for two?

Everybody do the "Bump".

Cheer up, Jena. You'll get to play eventually.

Is this yellowjacket a male or female?

Carol's new boyfriend appears to be shy at first.

The Ahrlett-sisters can blow lots of hot air.

Can't you control that steer Murchison?

Shrimp salad, anyone?

Carol gets Mr. Alexander from behind.

James shows off his steer.

SPORTS

1975 District Champs

The Llano Jackets performed admirably this year, with an 8-3 season. The numerous injuries did not hinder the Jackets execution of a superb season. Some of the leading factors for this winning season was our great rushing ability, over-all team play of the defense, and the fact that all of the boys played as Superstars with team efforts being shown every game.

Coaches: Saucier, Barry, Baskin, Gray. Not shown: Bethell, Hallmark, Ligon. Captains: Russell, Kaspar, Baye

The Jackettes finished their basketbal season with a 10-6 record. They suffered from numerous injuries and were handicapped by lack of height through the season. Win, lose, or draw, the Jackettes applied pressure during every game. Throughout the season they capitalized on turnovers and other errors made by opposing teams.

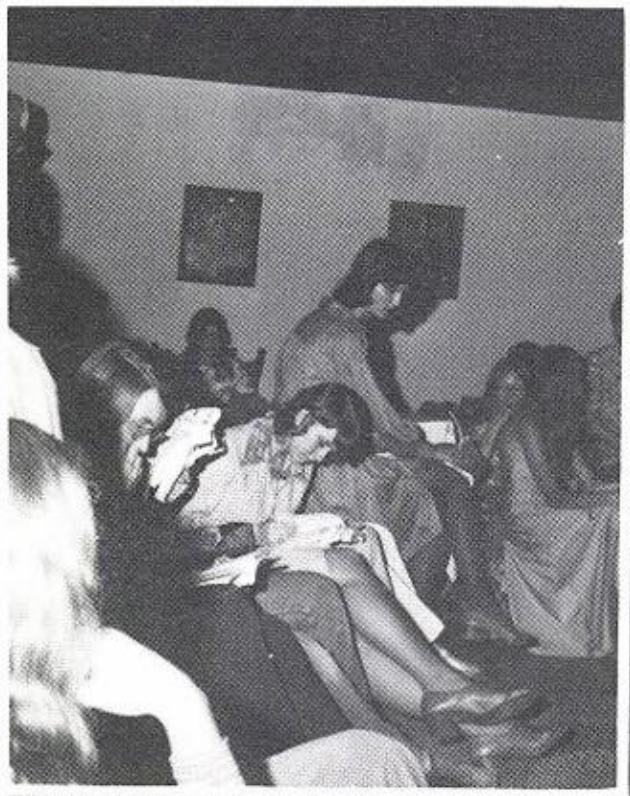
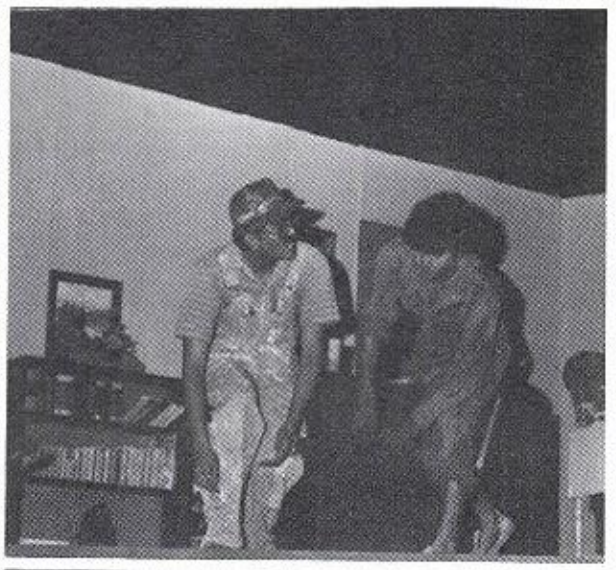
"The Nut Factory"

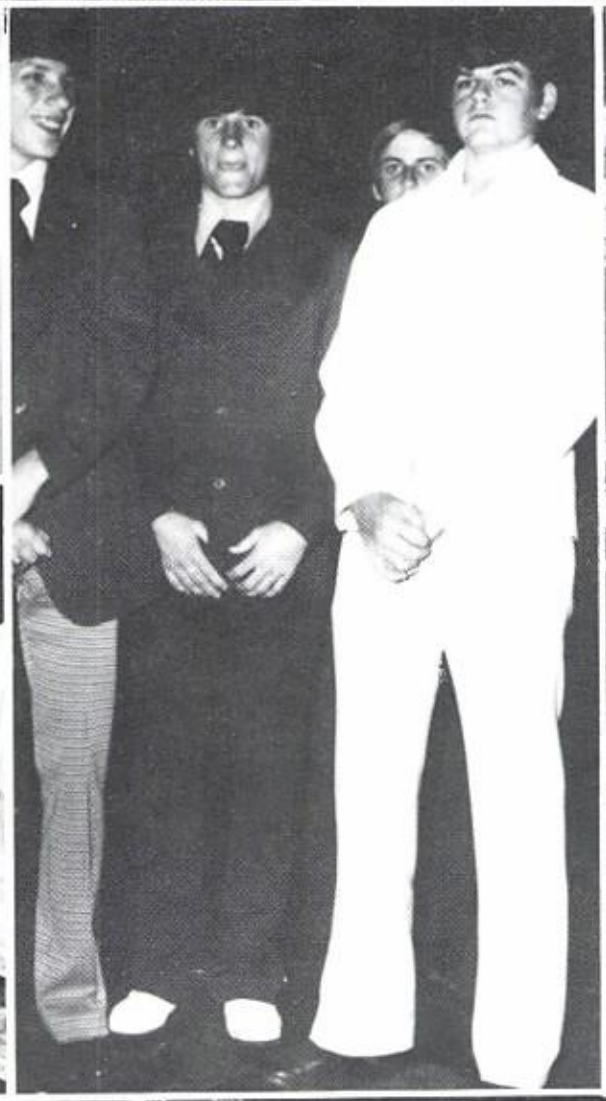
The Junior class presented a play that was the sell out of the season, earning the industrious workers over one thousand dollars. The plot centered around three sisters trying to keep a halfway house out of the clutches of their aunt, with help from friends.





"Under the Sea"

Cresting waves hovered over the crowd who gathered for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet and Prom. The theme "Under the Sea" featured Neptune, mermaids, and various other sea life, including a life-like reproduction of "Jaws". It was an evening enjoyed by many, and remembered by all.



Juniors Score On Can Plan

The library was our 10-20 for the year and the site of many projects of the Class of '77. This little can decided to scope out its situation.

Looking Back . . .
. . . Only To Look Forward

We have come,
To become all that we were meant to be.
We have all changed.
We have all grown.

No matter what we did or said or appeared to be,
we were talked about, laughed at, and laughed with,
mocked, pitied, and loved.
We sang, danced, and mourned . . . together.

The days have been fruitful. We have no regrets.

We're glad we've come this far . . . to keep going farther.

When I leave here I'm gonna miss you - because you are so nice to me. Thank you for being my friend. Stay the same and everyone will always love ya like I do.
